LOCAL HISTORY

The background of the cover is a vibrant orange-red. Overlaid on this are two large, stylized, interlocking loops that resemble a figure-eight or a knot. These loops are composed of thick, hand-painted strokes in shades of blue, purple, and yellow, with black outlines. The overall effect is dynamic and artistic.

Meadowbrook Diversity- United We Stand, Divided We Fall . . .

The 1995-96 Sceptre theme is d i v e r s i t y. At Meadowbrook, we have a unique student body and faculty; one with different backgrounds and interests. The yearbook staff wanted to profile our diverse student population and how our school benefits from all cultures.

This is our second year serving as the home school for the English as a Second Language program in Chesterfield County. We have over one hundred kids participating from more than thirty-two countries represented here. The ESL students have brought a great deal of enrichment to our school.

"Diversity at MBK enhances everyone's education because it allows us to learn first hand the cultural beliefs and contributions of many ethnic groups," Mrs. Rusher, history teacher. "In my opinion, Meadowbrook is a unique school; for the most part, everybody seems to get along," Stacy Chenault, senior.

Senior Awards Banquet

Hosted by Meadowbrook's alumna, Tracy Capps, The Senior Awards night was a huge success. The Awards were given to seniors in order to honor outstanding achievement in academics, the winning of scholarships, and other various activities. Highlights were a modern dance number from sophomores Dana Wiggins and Nicole Gentry, musical selections from the Jazz band, and a duet rendered by seniors Stacey Henderson and Jenny Keavy. After the ceremony, a reception was given by the PTSA.

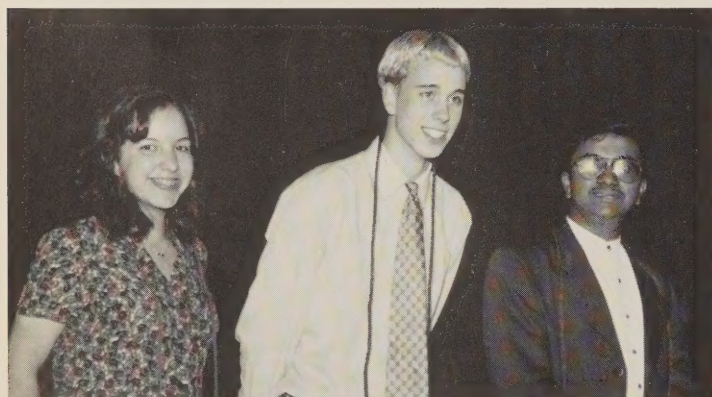

"Congrats c/o 96!": Tracy Capps begins the ceremony by congratulating the senior class.

Hola, Bonjour,Salve! Diana Zapata, James Menefee, and Abay Shaw are awarded for outstanding performance in foreign language.

1995 Homecoming

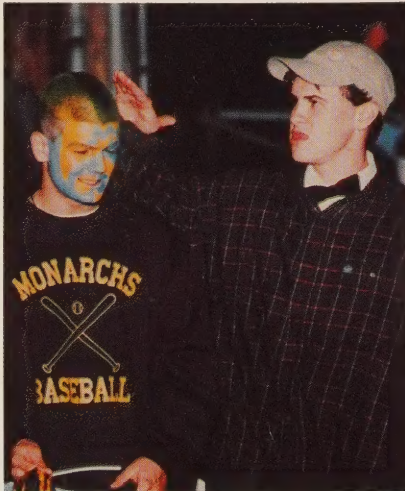

Today's Dreams,

Tomorrow's Memories

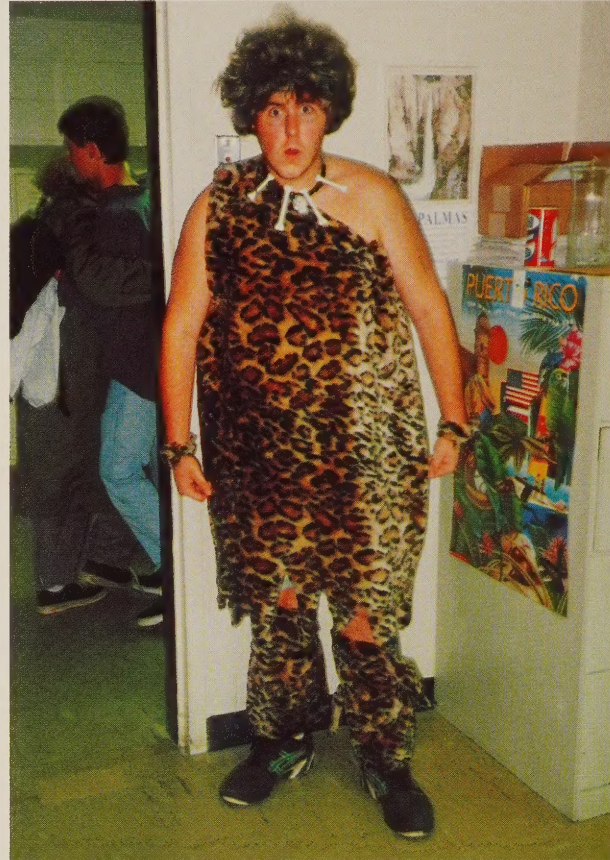

Meadowbrook's 1995 Homecoming was an event to be remembered. The activities began on Monday of Spirit Week when the majority of the student body did not dress for school and instead came in their pajamas. The enthusiasm did not stop there, for throughout the rest of the week, students actively participated in Hat Day, Twins Day, and Blast From the Past Day. The week ended with Spirit Day. This day included a Pep Rally where the Varsity Cheerleaders, who weren't supposed to talk all day, got pies in the face because they couldn't refrain from chatting and gossiping. Selected football players from each grade strutted their stuff in a contest where they did a cheer and a dance with the cheerleaders. The pregame activities were a huge success, for numerous students participated in the parade that ran from Falling Creek Middle School to Meadowbrook. The stands were filled; the fans anxious to see a big win over Colonial Heights. THEN THE RAIN CAME, and the umbrellas came out. The game was eventually called, and the Halftime Activities were postponed until the following night at the dance. MBK students never looked better at this dance, and they seemed to enjoy the music and the refreshments the individual clubs provided. Seniors Lavelle Hawkes and Stacy Chenault were announced as the special people chosen to reign over the Homecoming Court. As the evening came to an end so did Homecoming Week, a week that definitely proved that Today's Dreams are Tomorrow's Memories.

Meadowbrook experiences

Multicultural Day

Meadowbrook students greet our guests with enthusiastic smiles.

Ling Vu proudly represents her country.

Walking through the crowded room, catching a glimpse of a german chocolate cake in one corner, egg rolls in another amazes the eye as to the variety of foods one encounters at the international food festival. What is this sight reminded of? That's right, Meadowbrook High School. One wouldn't think it, but it's intriguing how many different cultures are found in the hallways of M. B. K. In honor of our diversified school, Mrs.

Martin, along with the faculty, assembled a myriad of people with different ethnicities. The Multicultural Day proved to be a success when our guests educated our students about culture and career. Among some of our guests were native Africans, Hispanics, and Vietnamese speakers. In addition, Mrs. Sert spoke on behalf of her homeland, Turkey.

Students were fascinated when they heard all about the speaker's experience.

Meadowbrook Prom 1996

Set the Night to Music

The 1996 MBK Prom was a raging success. On the evening of May 10, the ladies looked like princesses with each date seeming to be Prince Charming. The music was loud in the elegant Jefferson ballroom and the students were shakin' their thang. The traditional Senior Walk took place on the Jefferson's Grand Staircase. The Prom Court was then announced and showcased on the stairs. Terry Harlowe and Diana Zapata, voted 1996 Prom King and Queen, were then recognized and had the first dance when they returned to the ballroom. The formal prom ended at midnight only to let PTSAs AfterProm Party begin. The students were again entertained at Robious Sports and Raquet Club with gambling, swimming, tennis, caricatures, and door prizes. As the night wore on, the students became worn out; nevertheless, this night set to music will be forever treasured by all.

Senior day for the class of 1996 was a hit. After long preparations and a lot of cancellations and rescheduling, the Senior Class Council, along with the help of sponsor Sterling Hawkins, planned the perfect Senior day. All seniors met in the cafeteria for a breakfast together. Later, we assembled in the auditorium to watch our fellow classmates be hypnotized. Reed Carnes stole the show when he was tricked to believe he was without a belly button. Becky Spurlock was made to believe she was conducting a 50-piece orchestra. Rachel Bliss was in so deep of a trance that she broke into tears for fear that her classmates were going to beat her up for snitching. After these activities, we all piled into the buses to bowl for the afternoon. It was a fun, laid-back day had by all.

Graduation

Top Right. Valedictorian Melinda Christie speaks her words of wisdom.

"We're outta here!!!!" That statement, among others, was being said after Mr. Porach announced that the Seniors have graduated. With speakers Beth Davis and Harry Daniel, the Commencement exercises came off without a hitch. The Seniors tried something new this year by having all blue robes, but at the time of graduation, no one cared what color their robe was. Salutatorian James Menefee gave a great speech about success, and Valedictorian Melinda Christie talked about the future. Another first for graduation was the participation of the JROTC during the Pledge of Allegiance. Even with all the wonderful speakers, the Seniors will only remember getting their diplomas.

Life at MBK

It's fun, it's great, it's alive

Because of a new coaching staff, the Meadowbrook cheerleaders began the year a little apprehensive. Nevertheless, coaches Karen Mahoney and Pam Tyler were able to add fresh ideas to the already strong program here at MBK. The girls combined the Varsity and JV squads to earn the titles of VHSL Central District Champions and ECA State Champions, among a few. The girls competed in a number of other competitions where they placed high along with keeping up with the football games and basketball's hectic scheduling. The girls continued to support the teams throughout the year not only with their neverending enthusiasm at the games but also with the most entertaining pep rallies in years. Clearly, the new coaching staff and the great leaders among the squads prove that cheerleaders truly are the top athletes.

MEADOWBROOK football

Running, hitting, lifting weights, sweating and suffering from aching muscles were some of the pains the football team was willing to face in order to achieve a high level of excellence. For the Meadowbrook Varsity football team, this year was one of ups and downs. None of the players knew what to expect in the beginning, but fortunately, the team came together in the end. The key strength for this football team was unity and attitude. Captain Lavelle Hawkes summed it up by saying, "We were a team, and there were no individuals. We felt like a family." Some of the key family members were Lavelle Hawkes, Mike Wright, Lamar Calloway, and William Fleming who all received District honors. Even though their record doesn't show it, the team had a lot of heart and never quit.

boys' volleyball

Volleyball is here! This year marked the first time in Meadowbrook history that there was a boys' volleyball team. Everyone started out equal no matter if he was a senior or a freshman. Considering the lack of experience, the team, led by seniors Tristan Pelligrino, Joe Elder, and Scott Zebrowski, did surprisingly well and ended up fourth overall in the district. Some standouts for the team were Chris Wolf, Ian Cassidy, and Tri Tang who all won District honors. For a first year team, these guys showed Meadowbrook that the future of volleyball is promising.

MEADOWBROOK girls' volleyball

When Girls' Volleyball was introduced as a sport in the fall of '95, many people wondered how it would fair. Would enough girls come out? Would they know how to play? These questions were put to rest by the first Girls' Volleyball team here at M.B.K. These girls turned out on the first day of tryouts and played great throughout the entire year. Despite not having any formal experience, these girls made up for it with hustle and determination. As the season progressed, they began to gel as a unit and went to the District tournament. Throughout the season, there were some tough losses, but these girls showed Meadowbrook that girls' volleyball is here to stay.

MLADONOV field hockey

Coming into the 1995 Field Hockey season, the Monarchs had many obstacles to overcome. There were only three returning seniors, all of the girls had to adjust to a new coach, and there were not enough players for a JV team. In the first game of the season, they showed these obstacles were not a problem as they shutout L.C. Bird 2-0. As the season progressed, everyone could see the girls were growing together as a team, and they ended up fourth in the District. Their season ended on a dramatic, sudden death loss to Thomas Dale in the District tournament, but they showed how far they had come. Four girls, Diana Zapata, Elizabeth Lawrence, Merritt Bradshaw, and Amy Luttrell all earned District honors. The Monarchs have a lot to look forward to next year.

golf

As the golf team entered the 1995-96 season, they knew they face a big challenge. Senior Michael Stephens and Junior Aaron Persinger were going to have to step up and take charge for the Monarchs to be successful. Other key golfers were Ronald Holt and Steven Little who both did not play last year but made major improvements this year. Both Aaron and Michael came in on top in district play and barely missed going to play in the regionals. With three returning next year, the golf team looks to be a district contender.

girls' tennis

The girls' tennis team had high hopes coming off of last year's season, but they did not expect the obstacles they faced. Not only did they lose a key senior on last year's team, but their number one player this year could not play either. Every tennis player overcame the injuries and little numbers to play a respectable season. In each match, every player played their heart out and no opponent could sway their good attitudes. Some key players included Stephanie Sarver and Angela Snead who both participated in the District tournament. With the heart, attitude, and youth of this year's team, Coach Grace Mahoney has a lot to look forward to next year.

MEADOWBROOK cross country

The Whitney Chandler Cross Country era has come to an end. Actually, the whole cross country showed their talent, guts, and heart this year as they went on to finish third in the District. The girls, led by Seniors Whitney Chandler, Rachel Meredith, Diana Maphis, and Stacie Leake, had many tough races against District opponents. Whitney finished first in every Regular Season race and was the District champion. Good luck to the girls next year. The boys' cross country team also fared well in District play with the leadership of Aaron Aunins and Brian Barber. They ended up with a record of 3-3, but with their small numbers, they could not do as well as they had hoped. With the youngsters coming back, cross country will still be strong without the talent of Whitney and Brian.

MEADOWBROOK boys' basketball

The Boys' Basketball team knew they had a challenge ahead of them when they lost four members of the 1993 State Championship team last year. Seniors Chris White, Andy Foldenauer, Tristan Pelligrino, and Kevin McNair stepped their game up to another level, but the challenge deemed to be insurmountable. In an extremely tough district, the boys' finished seventh overall. Andy said, "This year was a tough one, but we still had fun even though we were losing. Those wins were definitely the highlight of our season." One of the outstanding players this year was Chris who received Honorable Mention All-District. With all the juniors and sophomores returning, the boys' basketball fans have a lot to look forward to next year.

MEADOWBROOK girls' basketball

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team began this year with high expectations and a team-oriented attitude. After beginning with a 1-10 record, The Monarchs decided they were going to turn things around. Led by Seniors Elizabeth Lawrence, Stacie Leake, Devon Maness, and Eraca Phillips, the Girls' ended their season by winning six out of their last seven regular season games and finishing fourth in the Central District. Devon said the reason for their success "is because we never stopped being a team, and we believed in each other's ability." Each girl contributed their talent to the team, but three girls received special honors. Elizabeth was selected a 1st team All-District, Devon was Honorable Mention All-District, and both were chosen as All-Academic. Elizabeth was also named Honorable Mention All-Region, and Alisha Harvey was voted onto the All-Tournament team. Even though their record doesn't show it, this team was a true success because they never quit trying.

wrestling

The Monarch Wrestling team had a tough season this year. The team started off with more than thirty members and ended only with nine. Senior Mike Stevens, Junior Chris Wolf, and Sophomore Paul Nicklis finished second in the district. Sophomores Tommy Terry and Stephen Wolf finished third in the district, and John Munos ended the season at fourth in the district. Coach Kane said the reason for the small numbers was that, "This is the hardest sport in Meadowbrook." In the end, these wrestlers gave it their all despite the lack in numbers and finished with six out of seven Varsity wrestlers placing in the district. A very special thanks goes to Coach Kane, who is retiring from coaching this year with a career winning over 100 matches as a coach. He has been with the school and its sports since it opened in 1963, and he will be missed by everyone.

MEADOWBROOK indoor track

This year's Indoor Track started out with many runners, sprinters, and hurdlers, but both the Girls' and the Boys' team ended the season with five dedicated team members. For the Boys' Indoor Track team, coached by John Allen, Bryan Goodman and Antwone McDuffie led the way. Both boys finished first in the district and helped the Boys' place fifth in the District. Considering the team consisted of only Goodman, McDuffie, Kevin Merritte, Mark Ingraham, and Bryan Baskerville, this team did excellent in a tough district. The Girls' Indoor Track team also had trouble keeping runners, but they also had the leadership of two great track members, Nancy Williams and Whitney Chandler. Tuyet Le, Tiffany Parker, and Tasharnda Gaines also helped the Girls' Track Team finish strong. Both Chandler and Williams finished first in the district and had a strong showing in the Regional Championship.

MEADOWBROOK boys' soccer

This year's Boys' Soccer team used all of their talent, experience, and skills to pull off a great season under new Head Coach Todd Morrissett. Under the guidance of Seniors Dean Blessing, Chris Showalter, Mark Vaughn, and Joe Elder, the Boys' were able to beat teams like Bird and Colonial Heights. Two standouts for the team were Dean and David Casler who both were named to the First Team All-District and All-Academic teams. Coach Morrissett was also named the Central District Coach of the year by his fellow coaches. Even though their record was a losing one, the Boys' still had a great season and refused to give up in any game. With this kind of tenacity, the Boys' will be a team to reckon with come next Spring.

girls' track

The Girls' Track team started out with a lot of hope for an undefeated season and a District championship, but due to a band trip and some injuries, the team was disappointed. Even though their goal of a championship was not met, the team still had a superb year. Senior Nancy Williams won the Discus event in the Central District and went on to Regionals and States. Senior Whitney Chandler won the 1600M and the 800M in the District meet and participated in Regionals. Also, the 3200M Relay team finished third in the District meet and went to Regionals. The team also has a lot of young talent for next year including Kai Kennedy and Christie McMillan. With all this talent coming back, their goal of a championship may be met.

boys' track

Like the Girls' Track team, the Boys' Track team also had high expectations at the beginning of the year, and some of the athletes went far. Under Coach Dewey Windham, the Boys' finished fifth in the District meet and 3-3 overall. Bryan Goodman, the team's Most Valuable Runner, finished first in the long jump and second in both the 110M hurdles and the 100M dash. He went on to Regionals and represented Meadowbrook well in the State Championships. Fortunately for the Monarchs, he and Antwone McDuffie are only Juniors and will be returning next year. Other standouts for the Boys' were Brian Barber and Derrick Taylor who are both Seniors.

softball

This year's Varsity Softball team combined both youth and experience to pull off a great season. With four Seniors on a team of fourteen, everyone had to do their part. The girls played every team close, and unfortunately, they lost some of the heartbreakers. Overall, though, the softball team had a good year and four girls were honored. Seniors Julie Shelton, Eraca Phillips, and Devon Maness and Kare Hughes all received District honors at the end of the season. The team finished fourth in the District and almost pulled off an upset in the Central District tournament.

MEADOWBROOK baseball

The Varsity Baseball team started out the season with high hopes but ended up disappointed at the end of the year. Seniors Kris Riggs, Chris Cross, Matt Priddy, Eric Morris, and Than Abbott led the baseball team to first place in the district at the beginning of the season. Unfortunately for the team, the Seniors weren't enough to hold off opponents who also wanted first place. The Boys' Baseball team ended up fifth in the season with a record of 9-10 with big wins against Hopewell and Colonial Heights. Some of the standouts for this team were First Team All-District member Kris Riggs and Matt Priddy who was Second Team All-District. Next year, the baseball team has a lot to look forward to since they are returning eight starting underclassman including pitcher Chuck Fuller and catcher Scott Burnup.

boys' tennis

The boys' tennis team took advantage of five returning seniors to help them dominate the district. Seniors Andy Foldenauer, Matt Stoss, Terry Harlowe, Michael Kahl, and Scott Zebrowski took the first five spots, and James Atkinson rounded out the top six. With all this experience, the boys' team made a very good showing in the district and at the tournament. Matt and Andy both were First Team All-District and All-Academic. They also went to the semifinals of the District tournament where they lost to two formidable opponents. Terry and Scott also traveled to the tournament and went to the semifinals with their doubles partners. With these top five Seniors leaving, Coach Grace Mahoney will have to do some major rebuilding next year.

A: Without a doubt!!

The "Wright" party. Michael drums up support as he contemplates his political future.

The seniors once again ventured to Washington to visit the Supreme Court, various monuments, Congress, and war memorials. They also walked around the Vietnam Wall and enjoyed a day in our beautiful capitol. This is the fourth consecutive year that Col. Hall has taken his Government classes to experience the many aspects of Washington, D. C. Mr. Hall believes that it is a moving and true learning experience for all people.

Who needs Broadway

"Out of the Frying Pan," featured seven young teenage actors in New York City. They were living a life of independence trying to make it on their own. The young teens live in an apartment and below them resides a well-known play director. Throughout the play, the seven actors try to convince the director that they are deserving of a part by staggering short scenes for him. Trouble soon sets in when they perform a mock murder scene. The other neighbors believe it is an actual murder taking place. Meadowbrook participants include Khalilah Branch, Francisco Nunez, Jenny Anderson Anderson, Stephanie Davis, Crystal Owens, Travis Seitz, and Chris Showalter.

What are these three plotting to do?

Yes, we're finished.

This year's one-act play, "The Dank Lady of the Sonnets," was directed by our new addition to the English department, Mrs. Henly. The play was a comedy take off on William Shakespeare's life. William Shakespeare, (Brooks Menefee) bribes his way into the palace to meet his dank lady, (Kristin Dunkum). Shakespeare meets the warden, (Ryan Mills) and learns from him that his dank lady has not been faithful. Shakespeare then thinks he sees his dank lady but in reality is truly Queen Elizabeth, (Stacy Henderson). The comedy unravels as each of the characters true identity is discovered.

JROTC -A Tradition in the Making

Meadowbrook High School was the first school in Chesterfield County to have a JROTC program. The program started with 83 Cadets at the first of the school year. We built the program to a high of 96 Cadets towards the end of the year. The main mission of JROTC is to MOTIVATE YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE BETTER AMERICANS, STUDENTS AND CITIZENS. We believe that we accomplished this mission in every way. Our Cadets participated in many school activities from football games to community service. We traveled with our teams to Washington DC, Fort Eustis, Fort Pickett, and local school events. Our first priority was to have our cadets in uniform. It is a symbol, honor tradition, and great achievement. The uniform was worn both proudly and properly.

For a first year, our Corps of Cadets continued to provide service in support of the school. Congratulations to all our cadets. You made the goal and set the standards.

A Day at the Tech Center

What is a day at Tech? It's a time to get away from Meadowbrook and learn something new. It's a time to experience new things and relax. It's a time to be with other classmates and friends who go to another school.

Each year the Battle of the Brains team tries out for the competition televised from October-April on channel 23. This year, in the preliminary testing, we were fortunate enough to be among the forty teams selected from over fifty that tried out. In our first round match, we staged an exciting come-from-behind victory over Douglas Freeman, the first time they have ever been defeated in the first round. In addition to our television appearances, we travelled to tournaments as well.

"There's no place like home!"

In Meadowbrook's second year of debate, the team went to new levels. With eleven seniors, the team participated in numerous rounds against formidable opponents from all over Virginia. At James Madison University, Ronni McPeters and Jentery Sayers won speaking honors, and at the VHSL Regional Tournament, Becky Spurlock and Ronni came in third. Reed Carnes and Daniel Shelton helped with fund-raising, and Amanda Jones traveled to Old Dominion University to leave her mark on Debate. At the CFL State Tournament, the team of Danielle Terrell and Devon Maness and the team consisting of Khalilah Branch and Sylvia Snead finished sixth and seventh respectively. Since Devon and Danielle could not go to Nationals, Sylvia and Khalilah took their place in traveling to Topeka, Kansas. Even though the two girls were excited to go, they were just as happy when they returned, hence the remark above. With all this success after just two years, the debate will surely take off in future years. As Danielle says, "Debate rocks!"

English as a Second Language

Mrs. Morris introduces Mrs. Sert, a Turkish exchange teacher, to her class.

Whether or not the individual arrives to Meadowbrook from the former Yugoslavia, Vietnam, Haiti, Latin America or any other country in the world, each student has something in common: the necessity to learn and adapt to a foreign country and culture. This is where the E.S. L. program comes in to play. Meadowbrook High School is the only secondary school with this program and therefore, all newcomers that arrive to our county are bused to M. B. K. The result is one of the most diversely populated school in the county.

The students are enrolled in a total immersion program that helps them to begin immediately reading, writing, and communicating in English. Also, each student must take a culture class which prepares them for the America outside of Meadowbrook. This class is ideal because it reduces the culture shock that is quite common to new residents of our society.

Phi Vu is an E. S. L. student who arrived to Meadowbrook from Vietnam last September with absolutely no knowledge of English. Phi feels that he has learned a lot at Meadowbrook and has made many friends in E.S.L. He also enjoyed seeing snow for the first time ever this past winter. Daniel Barrios came to the U.S. from Guatemala in February. When asked what he liked most about the E.S.L. program, he claimed that he has made many unique friends from many different countries and it was an opportunity that he would have never gotten in Guatemala.

The Dead Poets' Society MBK's literary society is comprised of would-be poets and writers. This year, we had our first school wide poetry contest as well as a teacher poetry reading where forty students attended.

We published one small scrapbook of our poems midyear. By the end of the year, our 1995-96 Literary magazine included over fifty student works. We can be recognized by our symbol "The Raven" and our presence felt by our motto, "We are the stuff that dreams are made of."

The National Honor Society has completed another year of service for the school and community. N. H. S. made a school record with an outstanding number of members. The class of '95 inducted 40 members and the second induction included 20 new members. As a result of a large population, N.H. S. was able to provide a lot of service for the community. The following activities that exemplified what N.H. S. stands for in service are: fund-raising at Barnes and Noble, book collections for the less fortunate, reading to elementary students, Walktoberfest, March of Dimes, MS walk, Sharing the Christmas Spirit by giving gifts to unfortunate children, helping host school plays, and beautifying our community. Many hours and dedication were put forth by the National Honor Society. Their wonderful sponsor, Mrs. Linda Rusher also should be congratulated for her fruitful efforts in making this organization such an enormous success. May the tradition of honor, service, scholarship, and character continue!

Dawnise Bullock and Dacia Pelligrino congratulate Teacher of the Year-Mrs. Evelyn Avery

Chesterfield's finest-MBK educators are a unique group with endless dedication to education and the betterment of our students. These professionals give selflessly of themselves in order to show their pupils and co-workers how important they are to our school. It is evident that these individuals love their job and enjoy helping people.

It looks like these young teachers are trying to ensure their tenure at Meadowbrook

Dr. Mullins(below), "So, Pebbles, what do you think about heading up the Athletic Boosters next year?"

Mr. Nabors,"Gee, what lesson plan do I use for snow day no. 10?"

SODA man
Rick Shannon

We Teach the Children...

Is it possible that these ladies could be moonlighting with another job?

Left: "Bad Boy" of Meadowbrook-Doc Madison

Below: Friends Forever!

Mr. Binns thinks he can win over all the girls' hearts with his stylin' ride.

The Class Councils of Meadowbrook

A Fine Representation

The Senior Class Council-This is your year!!! L to R: Diana Zapata, Terry Harlowe, Bonita Barton, Becky Spurlock, Andy Foldenaur, Jocelyn Totty, Stacy Chenault, Tristan Pelligrino, Rachel Meredith
These select individuals are responsible for planning many activities during their final year at MBK. A lot of these events would never be possible if Sterling Hawkins did not play such an active role as he does.
Thank you Mr. Hawkins!!!!

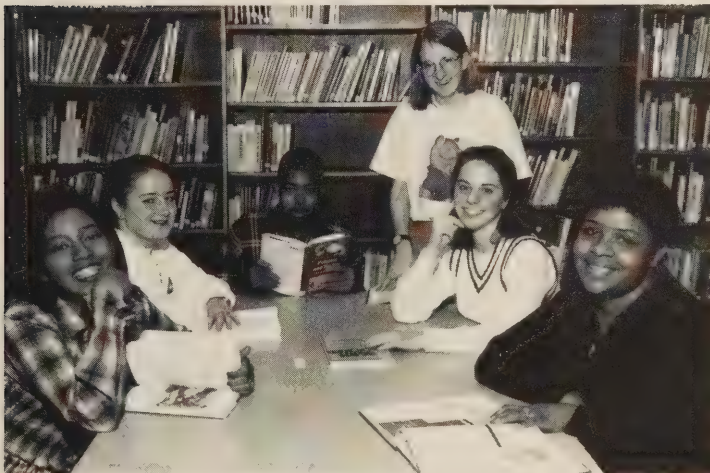

The Junior Class Council-

L to R: Leslie Rosas, Ginny Lee, Amy Robins, Dacia Pelligrino, Mindy Bennett, not pictured Jenny Lam
The 1995-96 Junior Class Council has been a group of very hard working female leaders that have raised a considerable sum of money for the Junior class. These ladies began planning Homecoming early in the Summer, and their efforts paid off with the MBK "Today's Dreams, Tomorrow's Memories" theme. The Junior class sponsored a financially rewarding bakesale during winter exams. In addition to these fund raisers, they plan to sell candy in the Spring in efforts to secure more revenue for the Senior Prom.

The class of '99 began with a wonderful start with superstar sponsor, Maureen Cheatham. They have involved themselves in school activities and fund-raisers as well this year. A great deal of money was raised with a very productive candy sale.

Right: Sophomore Class Council: Megan Abbott, Kevin Esslinger, and Tai Shoff

SODA (Students Organized to Develop Attitudes) is a group of students who are selected to teach fifth graders important lessons such as following directions, avoiding conflict, not succumbing to peer pressure, and having a successful transition to middle school. Team leaders meet with the cosponsors during the summer for additional training and to help plan the SODA lock-in training session. This year, activities in the lock-in included an obstacle course and a trust fall, designed to foster cooperation and trust. We also worked together by building a bridge with a variety of materials. Speakers were also invited to touch on topics such as the psychological development of fifth graders, interpersonal communication and the construction of a good lesson plan. The year ended with a SODA social on April 1st. Students from the fifth grade classrooms came that evening to show their appreciation. It was a great year!

Top: SODA members got down and dirty while mud wrestling at the Lock-in.

Bottom: SODA! The students show their love for SODA by forming the words with their bodies.

"She Blinded Me with Science"

The Science Ecology Club

The Science Ecology Club is dedicated to promoting a better awareness of our environment and its affect on our lives and in our community. During the 1995-96 school year, the club had an on-going paper recycling program and held a school-wide clean-up in March. The club participated in Homecoming by having a float in the parade and taking pictures at the dance. During Earth Week in April, the club held special activities each day, and at the end of the year, the club members took a canoe trip to explore the ecology of the rivers in our area.

1st Row (desks): R. Coates, K. Meredith, T. Conway, T. Tang (Vice Pres.), R. Bliss, E. Barillas (Pres.), S. Chaffin, T. Quinn
2nd Row: K. Hsu, C. Wolfe, J.D. West, D. Wiggins, C. Anold, T. Harlowe, B. Spurlock, K. Yau, Mrs. Headley (sponsor), M. Batchelder, M. Persinger. Back Row: R. Gipe (Sec./Treas.), D. Pelligrino.

The Outdoor Explorers Club

The Outdoor Explorers Club is a huge adventure co-ed group of MBK students interested in exploring primitive areas of Virginia. Activities are conducted from Friday, after school, until Sunday afternoon. Our activities are year round. We hiked the Appalachian Trail in the west to False Cape State Park in the east.

Crime Solvers

Row 1: Tanisha Brown, Kim Moore, Nyoka Key, Row 2: Darly Meade, Andy Foldenhouer, Dena Foulks

This was the first year of Crime Solvers at MBK. It was a little slow at the beginning trying to establish this club, but the returning members should have a solid base to work with. The goal of the club is to stop violence, drug use, and enforce rules of school and society. Hats off to the Crime Solvers this year. This club is here to serve its fellow peers.

The Science Ecology Club showed their school spirit by participating in the Homecoming Parade.

Mr. Bissett, Andy Crews, Chris Hayes, Roberta Herndon, Brandi Poe

Get Involved

Harambe Club-"Pulling Together For the Better"

These words ring true for this club who aspire to promote brotherhood throughout the community and the halls of Meadowbrook. Annually, we sponsor the "Playa's Ball" and a 7th period activity in order to designate a deserving senior with a $500 dollar scholarship. We would also like to thank our devoted sponsor, Mrs. Winston.

Student Cooperative Association

The SCA started the school year with many projects planned. The first activity the SCA organized was Freshman Orientation where they showed the incoming class our school. Devon Maness and Elizabeth Lawrence compiled a fantastic slide show. With the leadership of Mychael Jefferson, Devon Maness, and Elizabeth Lawrence the SCA was involved in the Homecoming Parade, Blood drive, Food drive, and carnation sales to help make the student body feel more unified.

Bonita Barton, Interact member visited Guyana during the school year to work with impoverished citizens.

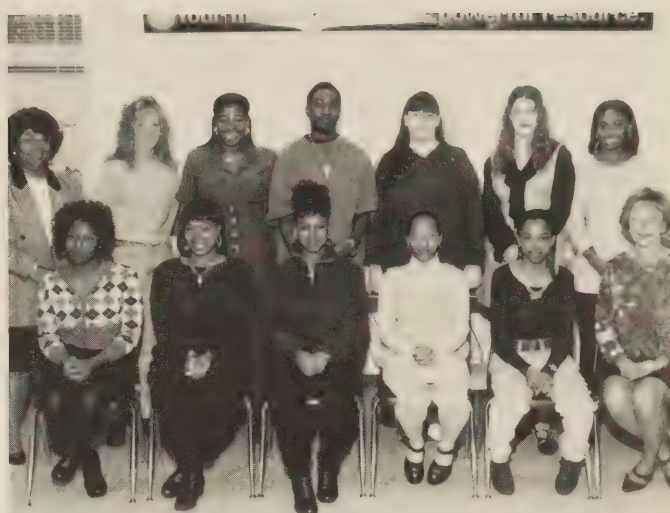

The Harambe Club sponsored a social for the ESL students in the Fall.

Erin Noel anxiously awaits the next Interact meeting

FBLA, C.O.E., V.I.C.A.

FBLA members get psyched for the homecoming festivities.

The VICA and DECA clubs combined this year to have their annual Employer-Employee banquet at the Olive Garden Restaurant. These clubs include students from the Cooperative Career Education for Employment, and the Marketing programs here at Meadowbrook. Each year the programs treat employers who have worked throughout the year with the school programs to this luncheon. This year a total of 86 attended the function including students and employers.

Future Homemakers of America

During the school year, F. H. A. /HERO had a candy fundraiser. During Halloween, we sold Boo-grams which were delivered with bags of candy. Some of the members participated in making a float and riding in the Homecoming Parade. At the dance, we had a table selling brownies and cookies for Valentine's Day, we sold roses. Child Abuse month is in April.

"We don't always create the conflicts that enter our lives but we can always choose our response to those conflicts."

Meadowbrook will be losing a few excellent seniors as mediators. We look forward to a continuing strong participation with our veteran mediators upcoming freshman and always welcome new recruits. Not only do MBK mediators provide a valuable service to its students, but the skills learned are a valuable tool that students can use throughout their lifetime.
